

Pour It Out

For Expanded Ministry

Thank you for joining in prayer for our congregation.

Father,

I come to worship today to hear your good news, to hear faith, hope and love ringing in my soul.

"And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love."

I Cor 13:13

Pray that God's Word will fill our beings.

I know that doubt, fear and hatred can shake even the strongest.

"Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the Lord our God." Ps 20:7

Pray that God's strength will hold us.

Shape us into faithful hopeful people, fill us with your love that passes all understanding.

"O Love that will not let me go, I rest my weary soul in thee; I give thee back the life I owe, that in thine ocean depths its flow may richer, fuller be."

Pray that God's love empowers us to offer grace to each other.

I pray this in the name of Jesus Christ.

Today like people in churches around the world, we come with petitions:
We have grieving people among us, we need your comfort for:

We have sick people among us, in mind, body, and soul; we need your healing for:

We have despairing people among us, we need your hope for:

We long for your Spirit's power; empower us to be a community that offers comfort, that encourages healing, that lives in your hope.

And now, I join together with my brothers and sisters around the world, as I pray the prayer you taught us to pray:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who have sinned against us.

Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
