

Pour It Out

For Expanded Ministry

Lord our God, by your help, we pray:

May we walk eagerly in that same love with which, out of love for the world, your Son handed himself over to death. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

“Out of the depths I cry to you, LORD;
Lord, hear my voice.

Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.”

Psalm 130:1-2

Remind us often Lord, when we are feeling proud, arrogant, beyond reproach, pleased with ourselves, self sufficient in our ways, that for such as us and better and worse, you walked a road that took you to a cruel cross, and rose again to show us where we might look for rescue as from this lofty perch we fall.

“If you, LORD, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand? But with you there is forgiveness, so that we can, with reverence, serve you.” v 3-4

Sovereign Lord, your hand has touched the dry bones of our faith, your Word has breathed new life where there was death, your spirit raised us up from where we lay, your love has brought us home and to your cross, and by your grace we stand forgiven, free.

“I wait for the LORD, my whole being waits, and in his word I put my hope. I wait for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning, more than watchmen wait for the morning.” v 5-6

Then you forgive, and having forgiven surround us in an embrace of love, drawing us close to your heart, as it was always meant to be. Thank you, Loving Father, that you listen to hearts, as well as voices.

“Israel, put your hope in the LORD, for with the LORD is unfailing love and with him is full redemption. He himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.” v 7-8

Circle us, Lord,
with arms of love,
and rid our hearts of fear.
Circle us, Lord,
with Spirit's power,
and cast aside despair.
Circle us, Lord,
with words of peace,
sufficient for each hour.
Circle us, Lord.
Circle us, Lord.

Holy Spirit, your creative breath is the power in your Church today.
May we know that power in this church and in our lives.

Into your presence we come.

Into fellowship with Father, Son and Holy Spirit; Glorious Trinity.
You breathed this world into being. Your creative Spirit is still visible within our everyday lives; Your recreating Spirit is present in our congregation.
